

Equal Opportunities Policy

‘Equal opportunity is about celebrating difference and diversity and as such providing a swimming structure that can respond to this in a proactive and positive manner’.

The Survive and Save Club is totally committed to the principles and practice of equal opportunities across all of its aquatic disciplines, both as an employer, provider and as a facilitator of such practices by all its members. In our work with key partners, such as swimmers, clubs, teachers, coaches, officials and administrators, we will advocate our policies make every effort to ensure that all participation has equity at its core.

Swimming is a ‘sport for all’. It can and should be enjoyed and made accessible to everyone and to achieve this:

- The Survive and Save Club is committed to work towards ensuring that swimming is accessible to the many, rather than the few.
- We recognise the need to acknowledge the diversity of provision that is required to ensure that all people, regardless of their race, sex/gender, disability, age, sexual orientation, social or economic background can access swimming and develop at a level that is appropriate to them.
- We recognise the need to celebrate difference and diversity of provision as a means of creating entitlement and accessibility to our structures.
- We recognise that equal opportunity is about knowing people are different and therefore require different provision.
- We recognise the need to consult widely in order to respond to diversity.

Addressing equal opportunities

In addressing equal opportunities, Survive and Save Club will respond to issues of equity by:

- Recognising that swimming as an organisation, our staff, swimmers, coaches, teachers, officials and administrators need to adapt and work flexibly in order to respond to the needs of a wide and diverse range of people.
- Take positive action to increase the involvement from underrepresented groups in all aspects of our organisation.

In doing so the Survive and Save Club supports four key principles as being fundamental to ensuring that everyone can participate in our sport and the achievement of equality of opportunity:

- Entitlement: People have a right to participate in and access quality and appropriate experiences within swimming.
- Accessibility: It is the responsibility of the Survive and Save Club - our teachers, coaches, officials and administrators to adapt provision to fit the needs of the many.
- Inclusion: Wherever and whenever possible, all to access the same provision.
- Integrity: Whatever we do as an Association to change or adapt provision, it must be of equal worth, challenging, relevant and in no way patronising.

Lines of responsibility

We will strive to become an organisation that values diversity and in order to achieve this we recognise that there must be clear lines of responsibility between all segments of the organisation.
